Objectives

To provide accessible and affordable children's services for families and children in the Bega Valley Shire.

To build strong and responsive connections with children, families and others in the Bega Valley Shire community, and work to achieve socially just best practice outcomes.

Bega Valley Shire Council (BVSC) policy

- Maintain accessible and affordable children's services, particularly for low income and Koori families.
- Provide children's services that meet all government statutory requirements and quality standards
- Prioritise children's programs that promote social justice, learning, health and well-being for children and families
- Promote a range of mechanisms that support parent and community involvement in children's services
- Build strong inter-agency relationships with other child and family services in the Bega Valley and wider early childhood field
