Towamba Spinners

Our community halls are busy with activity throughout the year. Towamba spinners group have been meeting in the Towamba Hall for 36 years and remain as active and vibrant as ever.

The group welcomes new and experienced spinners and craftspeople are also welcome to drop by and join them. A gold coin donation appreciated and they meet every Tuesday between 11am and 4pm.

For more information call Pam Bradford on 6494 7186 or Julie Bedford 6496 7113.

Beach Street road works

Merimbula's Beach Street will be closed for road rehabilitation works on Monday 30 January 2017 from 6am to 6pm.

The works between Main Street and Alice Street are to prepare the surface for final resurfacing in March. Work is weather dependant, and a full road closure is required. Signage will be in place advising people of detours.

For more information please contact Terry Maher 0447 293 114.

Summer blockbuster exhibition ending soon at BVRG!

Iconic photographs capture Australian beach culture from the 1930s to today. Sunbathers, swimmers, surfers and surf life savers are depicted in this collection of photographs from the Australian National Maritime Museum.

The exhibition includes Max Dupain's iconic image, the Sunbaker, Ray Leighton's surfers posed with their longboards, images from Jeff Carter's 1960s surfing safari, and Roger Scott's "critical moment" photographs, taken as an individual catches a wave or dives into the ocean.

The Waves and Water exhibition is open at the Bega Valley Regional Gallery Monday to Friday from 10am until 4pm and Saturday from 9am until 12 noon until Saturday 4 February 2017. Don't miss out!
